

Self-Expression

Task H: Inferring Feelings from Actions

Read each statement. Then, match the feeling to the action. The first one is done for you.

1. Emily broke her new piggy bank. She is . . .

happy mad glad

2. Ben can stay up for an extra hour. He is . . .

sad scared happy

3. Ramon isn't invited to his friend's party. He is . . .

glad afraid hurt

4. Kento won a prize at the carnival. He is . . .

glad mad proud

5. Kevin borrowed Don's bike, but didn't ask for permission. Don is . . .

sad angry happy

6. Mori's cousin yells "BOO!" from behind the door. Mori is . . .

scared happy glad

7. Ellen's cat ran away from home. Ellen is . . .

happy thrilled sad

8. Alisha finds a present in her mailbox. She is . . .

surprised angry afraid

9. Phil is home alone. He hears a loud noise on the roof. He is . . .

glad frightened happy

10. Mr. Marsh tells his class they won the reading contest. Mr. Marsh is . . .

disappointed hurt proud

11. Donna bought a new dress, but she didn't notice the broken zipper. Donna is . . .

unhappy scared joyful

12. Sean's puppy chewed the kitchen chairs. When Sean's mom sees the damage, she is . . .

thrilled upset happy

I.E.P. Goal: The client will infer feelings from actions, with 90% or greater accuracy.