

Task I: Requesting Action, Assistance or Information, continued

Pretend that you are in the following situations. Answer each question by making an appropriate comment.

17. You are riding home with your friend and you begin to feel sick from the motion of the car. What do you say to your friend?
-

18. You are walking toward your car in the parking lot. You see someone trying to open one of the doors. What do you say to him?
-

19. You are a train conductor and the train is getting ready to leave the station. What do you say to the passengers standing outside the train?
-

20. While climbing a mountain with friends, you knock loose some rocks with your foot. What do you say to the climbers below you?
-

21. You are watching a movie at the theater. A woman sitting in front of you begins talking in a loud voice. What do you say?
-

22. You are a state trooper and you have pulled someone over for speeding. What do you say to him?
-

23. While riding your bicycle you approach a jogger from behind who is running more slowly than you are riding. What do you say to her?
-

24. You are a dentist. You have just given a patient a shot of Novocain so that he will not feel the drill as you fix a tooth. You want to make sure the Novocain has taken effect. What do you say to the patient?
-

I.E.P. Goal: When presented with situations, the client will make appropriate statements requesting action, assistance or information, with 90% or greater accuracy.