

Social Language

Task P: Requesting Information about Opinions

Ask someone to give you his opinion about one or more of the issues below. Then, state your own opinion about the issue, agreeing or disagreeing with the other person. The first one is done for you.

1. stores being open on Sunday

Should stores be open on Sunday? Yes, you might need to shop.

2. keeping wild animals in zoos

3. smoking in restaurants

4. advertising for Christmas before Halloween

5. letting girls play Little League football

6. violence on television

7. having children with handicaps in classrooms with nonhandicapped students

8. letting children attend funerals

9. the cost of prescription drugs

10. allowing alcohol advertising on television

11. teachers' salaries

12. movie rating systems

I.E.P. Goal: The client will ask another person for his opinion on issues and respond with his own opinion, with 90% or greater accuracy.