New York City is the center of our nation's finance, culture, publishing and fashion. If a person is visiting New York, there are several places that he really should see. The Statue of Liberty, a gift from France, sits in the New York Harbor and is a beautiful symbol of our country. Many skyscrapers line New York's skies and the Empire State Building is one not to miss. It has been used as a backdrop in many movies like King Kong, for example. Times Square is filmed every New Year's Eve as people wait for the dome to drop at the turn of each new year. A visit to New York City should be on every one's list of places to see!
