

Tattling

or

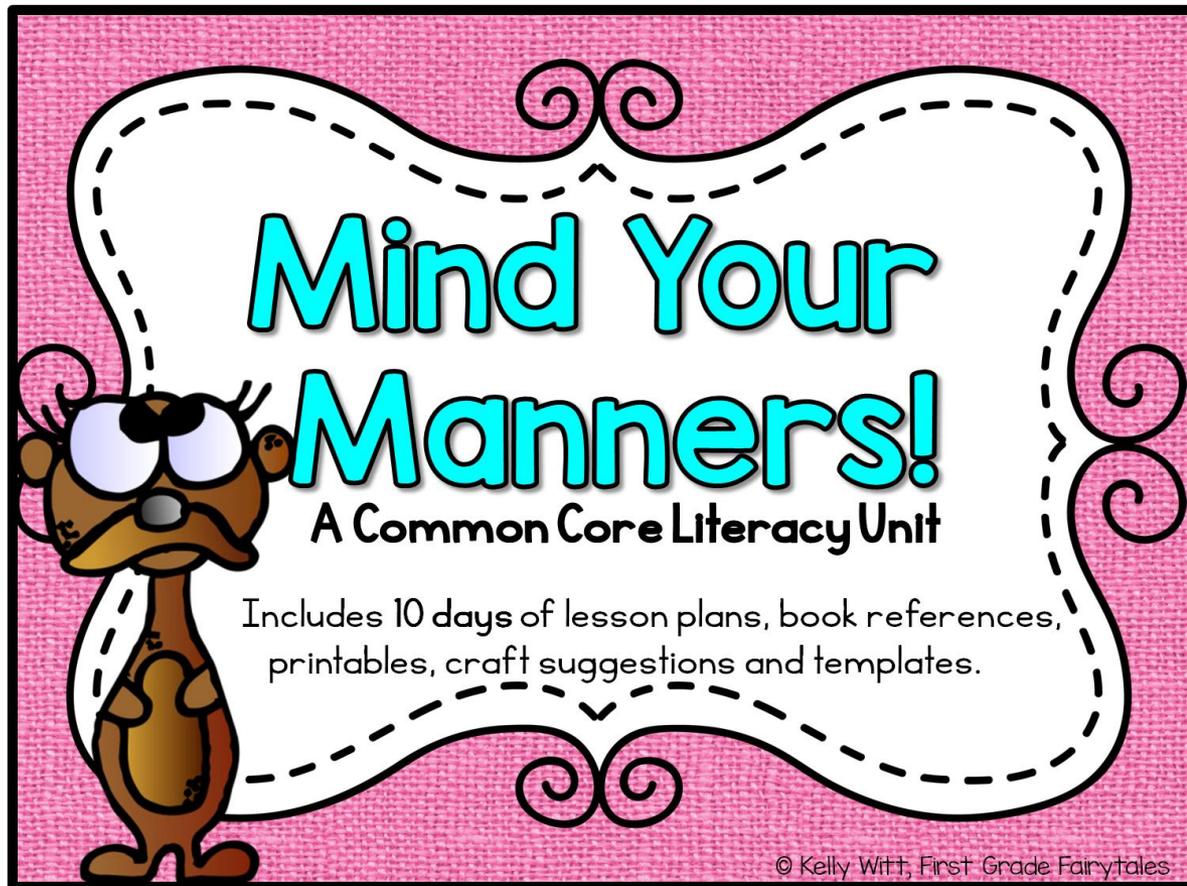

Telling?

Task Cards (FREEBIE)

Thank you for your download!

I hope you enjoy the product, and find the task cards helpful in your classroom. This activity is part of a 10-Day Unit focused on Manners and kind behavior in the classroom.

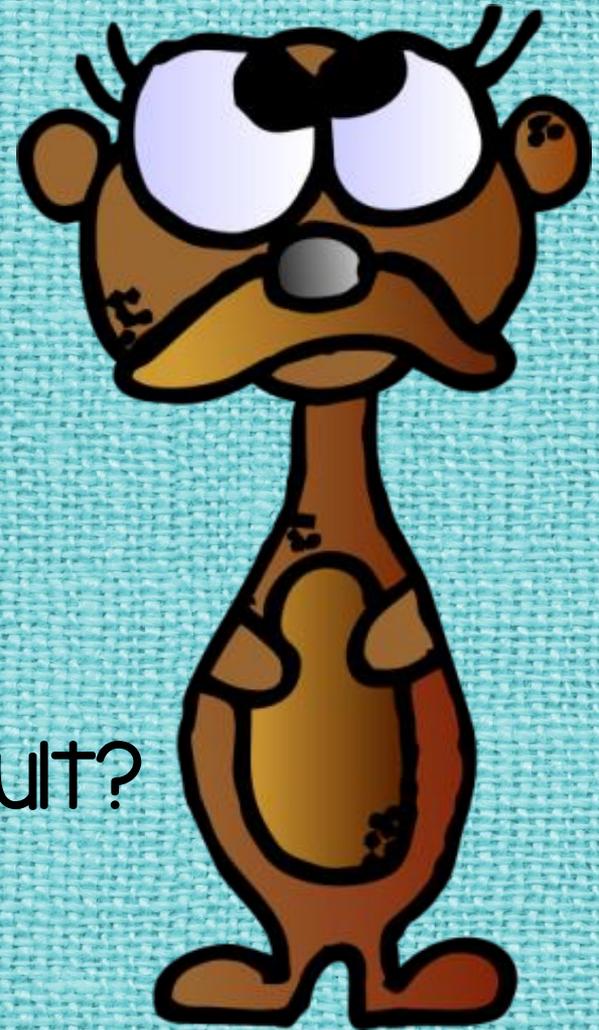

To check it out, please click the picture, or the link listed below. The unit includes lesson plans, printables, and many activities for your students!

<https://www.teacherspayteachers.com/Product/Mind-Your-Manners-A-Common-Core-Literacy-Unit-623513>

Should I Tell?

- Am I helping someone or trying to get them in trouble?
- Is someone in danger?
- Is it an emergency?
- Has there been an accident?
- Can you solve the problem on your own?
- Do you need help from an adult?
- Think: Is it really important?

Tattling

Telling

Tattling or Telling?

Jack hit
me.

Tattling or Telling?

Mary fell down.

Tattling or Telling?

Kim called me a name.

Tattling or Telling?

Sam threw a rock at me.

Tattling or Telling?

I was pushed on the playground.

Tattling or Telling?

Tom was picking on another friend.

Tattling or Telling?

Holly wrote in a book.

Tattling or Telling?

Max stole something from the classroom.

Tattling or Telling?

He won't play
with me!

Tattling or Telling?

She keeps looking at me!

Tattling or Telling?

Lee cut in front of me in line.

Tattling or Telling?

Seth is using the crayon I wanted to use.

Tattling or Telling?

He is drawing on his paper instead of working.

Tattling or Telling?

Jose' is playing in his desk.

Tattling or Telling?

Brad has my eraser.

Tattling or Telling?

She keeps looking at my paper.

Tattling or Telling?

Millie was running down the hallway.

Tattling or Telling?

Hank is making fun
of me.

Tattling or Telling?

Beth has a toy
in her bookbag.

Tattling or Telling?

James kicked Eric at lunch
today.

An example of tattling:

An example of telling:

THANK YOU!

Fonts By:

ClipArt/Graphics By:

<http://www.teacherspayteachers.com/store/Lovn-Lit>

Please visit my blog at:

www.thefirstgradedairytales.blogspot.com

